ARE BEST

FRIENDS

Today is a big day!

Really?

You get your echocardiogram
today!

Echo...
what?

A purple, furry cartoon bear with large, expressive blue eyes and a wide smile. The bear is holding a grey camera with a black strap and a red light. The bear is wearing a blue shirt. The background is a light blue gradient.

An echocardiogram looks inside your body and takes pictures
of your heart.

COOL!

Will I get to see them too?

They may
let you take a peek!

Will it hurt?

I don't think so!

Do I have to
be by myself?

No way!
Mom and I will be right here!

Look at these

neat+

stickers!

Yup! They help take the pictures of your heart.

Sounds like magic!

Just one
more thing...

TIME FOR SLIMPI!

This is sooo cool!

What's
that thing?

It's a wand to take
the pictures.

When the wand touches the slime, the pictures start.

Like a
magic wand!

Almost
done...
stay still!

Done!

That
was it?

That's it!

LET'S GO
PLAY!
